THE INHUMAN TRAFFIC

A Sequel to the Menzies Revelations—A Villainous Plot Fully Exposed.

The Colonist a Sympathiser with the Vicious—The Case Fairly Presented.

On the 3rd September, 1886, Yuk Lin, alias Ah Lin, aged about 12 years, was found in a house of prostitution kept by a woman named Tai Ho. She had been shamefully tortured and abused. Mr. Gardner informed the Superintendent of Police of the facts but that officer seemed reluctant to take any proceedings in the matter. The affair becoming noised abroad, Mr. Bloomfield was forced by public opinion finally to cause the arrest of Tai Ho, when the girl was also taken in charge. Yuk Lin was found to be covered with bruises and burns, made with hot irons. Her wrist had been broken and allowed to heal without medical treatment, and her arm was consequently crippled. Tai Ho was committed for trial on the 7th of September, 1887, when Sir M. B. Begbie appointed Mr. J. J. Daley, then secretary of the Young Men's Christian Association, guardian of the said Yuk Lin, and Mr. Daley placed her in the Chinese Woman's Home. Mrs. Hopkins was the matron at that time. Subsequently Tai Ho was tried at the assizes. Yuk Lin gave evidence against her and she was convicted and sent to prison for eighteen months. The girl, Yuk Lin, owing to the depraved life she had been compelled to live was very ignorant and hard to manage, but she remained in the home and learned to speak English and do sewing and other useful work. On more than one occasion she ran away from the "Home," but finding no other place as comfortable, she always returned. It was while Mrs. Hopkins had charge of the "Home" that her son-in-law—the alias "Professor" Menzies—first became acquainted with Yuk Lin and other girls in the Home. Some time after this it was discovered that the Professor was making a nice little income by admitting Chinamen to see the girls in the Home at $10 a visit. These visitors tried by threats and persuasions to induce the girls to leave the Home and to return to their former evil life. To get rid of too much magnetism they had to dispense with the services of the "Healer's" mother-in-law. The Professor was loath to lose such a lucrative practice and he kept his eye on the girls with the result so well known to the public, (a sale of Yuk Lin, body and soul, for $150). Yuk Lin not relishing this disposal of her person (although eminently and the Healer) left her purchaser and again returned to the "Home" where she can be seen and spoken to as to the truth of the above statements by any one having the welfare at heart. On the 9th of June a bold and audacious attempt was made to get Yuk Lin out of the "Home." Upon an ex parte application of Mr. Gannaway Mr. Justice Gray, who had only returned to the Province a few days previously, the

"MAGNETIC HEALER,"

SATISFACTORY TO THE COLONIST

FOLLOWING ORDER WAS OBTAINED.

In the Supreme Court of British Columbia—Regina vs. J. C. Gardner and —Leak, called Miss Leak.

WEDNESDAY, June 20, '88.

Upon application made to me this day and upon reading the affidavit of Lum Teze, sworn the 16th day of June inst., and filed herein, and the affidavits of Miss Jessie Fowler and Matilda de Lewma Fowler, sworn on the 18th day of June inst. and filed herein, I do order that the above named John E. Gardner and Leak, called Miss Leak, do on Friday, the 22d day of June inst., show cause before me or some other Judge of the Supreme Court at Chambers at 12 m. why a writ of habeas corpus should not issue for the body of one Ah Lin now confined or restrained by them. I do further order that the Sheriff of the County of Victoria do forthwith bring the said Ah Lin before the Registrar of this Court, to be by him examined touching her confinement in the premises known as the Chinese Girls' Home, and at such time and place as the said Registrar may appoint, and that such examination be produced before me at the time and place aforesaid.

J. H. GRAY, J. S. C.

Examined at 4 p. m., 20th June, 1888.

J. C. P., R.

Matilda Fowler is the person who sued Mr. Gardner and was defeated, hence her friendly readiness to make an affidavit that would tend to injure the man who as the Chief Justice remarked on the bench, "had been a friend to her and got sued for it." Under the authority of the above order, the sheriff dashed off to the "Home" and hustled the girl off to the Supreme Court; where she was examined by the Registrar in the presence of Mr. Gannaway and a Chinaman, Miss Leak, the matron, being to be present. Mr. Gardner had no knowledge of the matter, special care being taken that he was not served with the order. The girl refused to speak in Chinese or the result of the examination might have been different. The following was the result of her examination:

REFUSED PERMISSION

Supreme Court of B. C., Regina vs J. E. Gardner and Miss Leak.

Ah Lin being duly sworn—I am 15, lived in Victoria 3 years. I live with the woman (Mrs. Leak) that came with me. She is a good woman, is always good to me. I do not know Ah Chee, perhaps he knows me. Ah Chee says he married me; it was a false marriage. I lived with Ah Chee two days, I did not like him. Ah Chee took me to the woman's house, the one I have just come from; he knew I would not come back. One fat woman (meaning Mrs. Crawford) came down to Ah Chee and made me go to her house. I do not want to go to Ah Chee, am too little to go to China. I want to go the school house. Mr. Menzie came to Mrs. Fowler's house and took me to the fat woman's house. She take me to marry Ah Chee. I no like him. I know Mrs Fowler, she is good to me. I left the school house because the woman scolded me, so I went to Mrs Fowler's. When I left Ah Chee I went back to the school house. I want to go back to the school house. I know Hong Yuen, I don't like him. I want to live with Mrs Fowler. Ah Chee treated me well, never unkind. When I did not like him he said I could go back to the home. Vrooman came down to Ah Chee's house before Ah Chee took me back. He went back with Ah Chee and myself. I want to go back to the woman. I don't want to marry Ah Chee. No one has spoken to me as to what I should say to-night. I came off the street, and the policeman brought me over here. No one has spoken to me what to say since I have been in the home.

"J. C. PREVOST, R."

Upon reading the above examination, Judge Gray at once

DISMISSED THE APPLICATION

and upon Yuk Lin leaving the Court House and seeing Miss Leak, she ran to her and took hold of her arm and clung to her as if Miss Leak were her mother.

The above application was made upon the affidavits of the Misses Fowler and a Chinaman alleging:

1. That Yuk Lin had been beaten by Miss Leak and turned out into the snow.

2. That she was detained in the Home by force and against her will.

3. That she was intimidated by Mr. Gardner, and that the girls in the Home were taught to give false evidence.

That the above allegations were false is amply proved by reference to the examination of the girl before the Registrar. She says Miss Leak was "always good" to her, that she left the Home in January last voluntarily and "unknown to Miss Leak" that she "was not told what to say" before the Registrar. Miss Leak and Mr. Gardner had no knowledge of the examination and therefore could not possibly have spoken to her about it. As to the other matters contained in the Fowler affidavit, they are a tissue of falsehoods mixed with facts and hearsay gossip cunningly put together so as to create false impressions. One or two of the girls who were summoned as witnesses had been taught by Mr. Gardner to understand the nature of an oath and the consequence of false swearing, but the insinuation that any of them were told what evidence to give, is a wicked falsehood. Now as to

MRS. MENZIES LETTER,

and her truthful utterances. She says "Mr. Gardner pretended to rescue Lum Nun's girl and then charged him $75 for her board." Lum Nun says this is false. Here is his own statement:—

My name is Lum Nun; I am the person referred to by the name of Lem Yuen in the letter supposed to be written by Mrs. Jennie Menzies which appeared in the Colonist a few days ago. I was married to Ah Tung at Victoria by Rev. W. Pollard without the assistance or knowledge of Mr. Gardner. Some time after my marriage, some of the members of the more powerful clans of Chinese took my wife from me and placed her in a house of prostitution. I heard of the Mission "Home" and I sought Mr. Gardner's help to get my wife into the Home. My wife ran away from the house where she was kept, and Mr. Gardner allowed her to go to the "Home" for safety. At my request, after the danger was over, I got my wife back and have lived with her in peace ever since. Mr. Gardner never asked me to pay money for putting my wife in the "Home," and the statement that I was married from the "Home" is false, because I was married over two months before my wife went to the "Home." LUM NUN.

Mrs. Menzies is also flatly contradicted by Mrs. Spofford in a very able letter which appeared in the Colonist, much against the desire of the senior member of that concern, his two decent associates insisting that the letter should be published. The splenetic and malicious utterances of the same person, by the way, are fast earning for the paper the title of and his reputation as a journalist will soon outreach that of Fox of the Police Gazette fame. Let this man prove that Mr. Gardner in a single instance married a girl from the "Home" and accepted money for doing so, or let him stand branded as a liar. He says he believes the statements published by himself to be true; who then dare doubt him? He believes that the Professor did right in selling two girls which Mr. Gardner had rescued and that they ought not to have been rescued at all. He believes that the "Home" ought to be abolished and the girls returned to the places they were rescued from. He believes in the magnetism of the healer and that he is a pure minded man—like himself! The "Fee license" will cover a multitude of sins. It really does seem that the moral tone of the paper is regulated by the size of the "insult" or the force of the "magnetism." The base insinuation that the "Home" was established for mercenary motives, shows the purity of the fountain suggesting such a thing. There are about 12 girls in the "Home" worth from $500 to $1,500 each, and if Mr. Gardner's object was as insinuated he could realize the above amounts on these girls at any time. It is the loss of "so much property" that makes the Chinese hate Mr. Gardner so much. Large sums of money have been offered to get girls out of the Home, but the girls are there yet. It remained for Menzies to accept the bribe, and it remained for the Colonist to become his champion and the advocate of prostitution.

Death Ends the Case.

Dr. Walkem on Monday at Cowichan exhumed the bodies of the murdered men Miller and Dring, who were killed in 1886. The bodies were in a good state of preservation, the features of both men being recognizable. A number of beaver shots were found in both bodies, but no bullets. When the examination was completed the doctor received a telegram announcing the death in Nanaimo gaol of Qumlet, the accused murderer, which would terminate all proceeding in the case.

On the following day Dr. Walkem held an inquest on the body of Qumlet at Nanaimo gaol. Dr. Davis testified that the cause of death was consumption, and that the end was expected for the last month or two. A verdict was accordingly returned to that effect.

Nanaimo Hospital.

At the annual meeting of the Nanaimo Hospital subscribers on Tuesday evening the report presented showed the total receipts for the year to be $3,720, and the expenditure $3,422. Eighty-eight cases were treated during the year, and ten deaths occurred. The following officers were elected: John Pawson, President; A Mayer, Vice-President; Jas Harvey, Treasurer; D Smith, Secretary; Committee, Messrs J Mahrer, M Wolfe, E Quennell, Jas Abrams and E Webb.

The Seized Schooners.

The tug Mastick is taking on fuel and provisions at Seattle preparatory to leaving for Alaska to bring down the schooners Dolphin, Grace, Anna Beck and Ada. Two men will be taken to man each vessel, all that they will be required to do being merely to steer the vessels and keep them on a straight course.

FRESH FISHERY TROUBLE.

St. John, Nfld., July 11—Two French fishing vessels were captured by the bait protection steamer Ingraham, last night, for fishing within the limits. They made no resistance. They are now in Placentia harbor guarded by war ships. This act will in all probability lead to complications between the two governments.

CABLE NEWS.

THE ST. PETERSBURG VISIT.

Berlin, July 10—Emperor William will embark on his voyage to St. Petersburg on the morning of July 14th. The Russian imperial squadron will meet the German fleet in the German Gulf on the shores of Finland. There the Kaiser will be received by the Czar's yacht. The German standard will be hoisted above the Russian, and both squadrons will sail for Cornstadt. At that port a royal reception will be given at the landing, after which the cortege will proceed to St. Petersburg.

WHEN DOCTORS DIFFER.

Berlin, July 10—Reports of the German physicians concerning the dead Emperor's case are published. They are long, tediously minute and generally opposed to Mackenzie's treatment. Dr. Gerhardt says that he knew it was cancer from the first. He censures Mackenzie's treatment from the beginning to the end. Dr. Bergmann thinks Frederick's life would have been saved had a part of the vocal chord been cut out according to his advice. Frederick and his wife were willing the operation should be performed. Bergman also says he had successfully performed seven such operations in Berlin. The German physicians early lost all faith in Mackenzie's theory and treatment. Gischroetter is sure it was cancer beyond a doubt.

PARNELL'S POSITION.

London, July 10.—Parnell, by his attitude in the House of Commons in giving notice that he should insist upon a resolution creating a special committee to inquire into the charges made against him by the attorney-general and the Times, has satisfied all the critics of the Liberal party. He cannot hope to satisfy the Tories, who insist that he must go to the courts for satisfaction. Parnell's offer to have a committee made up of English and Scotch members is similar to the one offered by him last session when the Times printed the first letter. The government then refused his proffer, and Lewis and Blunt again refuse to accept it when the resolution shall come on Thursday.

THE DUKE TO BE SUMMONED.

London, July 11—A rumor prevails to-day that the Marchioness of Blandford, who at present is in France, is coming to England in a few days, and that on her arrival she will apply to the court for a summons against her former husband, the Duke of Marlborough, for contempt of the decree of the court by which it was expressly stipulated that respondent was not to be married again.

FRANCE AROUSED.

Paris, July 11.—The Government, aroused by England's activity in naval affairs, has asked the Chamber of Deputies for an additional credit of 64,000,000 francs to strengthen the ports of France.

KING MILAN'S BOY.

London, July 11.—It is reported that the German Government will exercise its authority on the side of King Milan in his struggle for his son and heir now held at Weisbaden by Queen Natalie. It is said the German police will be placed at the disposal of the King to carry back his crown prince. Queen Natalie, it is expected, will take vigorous measures to retain possession of the boy.

LIVERPOOL CUP.

London, July 11—The Liverpool cup was won by Saltety to-day.

RELEASED AND RE-ARRESTED.

Dublin, July 11.—Patrick O'Brien, member of parliament for Tipperary, was released from Tullamore jail to-day. He was immediately taken in charge by officers and conveyed to Kilkenny jail, where he will undergo a further imprisonment of three months for another violation of the Crimes Act.

UNITED STATES NEWS.

MURDERER HANGED.

Rochester, N. Y., July 10—Alonzo Deacons, the murderer of Mrs. Asa Slone was hanged in the jail this morning. He spent most of the night playing the violin. He calmly met death protesting his innocence.

PORTLAND AND THE C. P. R.

Portland, July 9—At the meeting of the board of trade to-night a committee was appointed to confer with the Canadian Pacific Railroad Company and endeavor to secure cheap rates from the East to Pacific Coast terminal points. It is hoped in this manner to get the Trans-continental Association to discontinue its action in making the rates soon to take effect, which will cause incalculable injury to this city.

THE TEACHERS' CONVENTION.

San Francisco, July 11.—The arrivals of teachers to-day to attend the National Educational Association Convention were few. At the headquarters of the Association this morning it was stated that instead of the twelve thousand expected less than half that number would be in attendance.

SHOT AND KILLED.

Helena, Mont., July 11—John Labelle, recently from California, was shot and killed by Charles Jordon, sheep herder, last night at Choteau. No particulars.

A FATAL CAVE.

Philadelphia, July 11—At the Marble quarries, near Mornstown, several hundred tons of marble caved in last evening and entombed the quarrymen. Four Poles were instantly killed and twelve badly injured. One of the men was rescued but died on the way to the hospital.

VIRGINIA FLOODS.

Parkersburg, W. Va., July 11—The floods continue to destroy property along Little Kanawha and Ohio rivers. The damage is greater than in 1884. Hundreds of acres of growing crops and harvested grain are destroyed. Millions of feet of timber are afloat and going to destruction. The loss to this and adjoining counties will be more than $100,000. Every stream is out of its banks and numbers of families have had to move to higher ground. Nearly all telegraphic communication was cut off by washouts. A woman was killed by lightning and a boy drowned last night.

Pittsburg, July 11—"Polishtown," located along the bank of the river, was in a sorriful plight to-day. There are nearly seventy-five shanty boats at that point occupied by over 150 families, aggregating a population of more than 500 people. All of these, with the exception of about a dozen families, camped out last night. Early this morning the trouble began. All day men, women and children were busy pumping water out of the boats and removing their goods to places of safety. By night ten boathouses had sunk or capsized, and several were carried down the river. Williamsburg, Becks Run, a portion of McKeesport, California, Monongahela, Bellevernon, Brownsville, Fayette City and other towns along the river are reported partly submerged this morning. At various points along the line of the Pittsburgh, Virginia & Charleston, and Baltimore & Ohio railroads, the tracks are under water and great difficulty is experienced in running trains.

The floods are unprecedented. The greatest damage to river craft occurred between 1:30 o'clock this morning and daylight. Shortly before 2 o'clock a number of barges came down the river and struck a bridge, the huge barges turning end over end. The towboat Barnard ran against a steamer. Every whistle on the river sounded the alarm, and as the rays of the electric light swept from side to side across the turbulent flood, it presented a wild sight. Logs, barges and fuel boats were dashed against the piers of the bridge and snapped like twigs by the overwhelming force of the current.

ACCUSED OF ABDUCTION.

Oakland, Cal., July 11—The trial of Frank Reme, accused of attempting the abduction of little Florence Blythe, dhughter of Thomas Blythe, a deceased millionaire, was resumed this morning. No important testimony was adduced. Reme will probably be acquitted.

A MOTHER'S VENGEANCE.

Omaha, Neb., July 11—At Douglas, Wyoming, yesterday afternoon, Mrs. Elizabeth Simon shot and instantly killed Wm. Dowling, who had assaulted her eight-year-old daughter. Her arrest, preliminary examination and prompt discharge followed.

DESTRUCTIVE FIRE.

Albuquerque, N. M., July 11.—Fire last night destroyed considerable of the business portion of Deming. Loss about seventy-five thousand dollars; insurance thirty-five thousand.

BRAKEMEN STRIKE.

Kansas City, July 10—All the brakemen on the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad struck at 11:00 this morning.

NATIONAL REPUBLICANS.

New York, July 11—At a few minutes after twelve o'clock the National Republican committee went into session. Proceedings were held in private, with J. L. Clarkson, of Iowa, as temporary chairman and Samuel Fessenden, of Connecticut, temporary secretary. After a session of about half an hour, the committee took recess, having appointed a committee of organization and one of candidates for permanent officers, etcs.

BURNED TO DEATH.

Buffalo, N. Y., July 11—A fire early this morning destroyed the Porter Avenue Livery Stables. John Bendhand and Wm. Benjamin, employees, and forty horses were burned to death.

HUNTERS LOST.

Napa, Cal., July 11—Richard Newell and Jules Pettingill, both seventeen years of age, left town on a hunting trip of a few days, a week ago, and as they have not returned up to to-day it is feared they are lost.

PROTESTED HIS INNOCENCE.

Wilmington, N. C., July 11—Stephen Freeman, colored, convicted of raping a white woman, was hanged to-day. Freeman protested his innocence to the last.

PUNISHING BRIBERS.

Chicago, July 11.—Judge Hawes to-day sentenced Sumner E. Welch, claim agent of the City Railway, to imprisonment for six months for attempted bribery. C. B. Holmes, president of the company, and E. M. Hardy, the company's attorney, were recommended to be dealt with by the grand jury.

Fruit Social.

A fruit social, which by the way is a new feature in Church festivals, was held in the Methodist Church school rooms last evening. There was a good attendance, Rev. Mr. Starr occupying the chair. A nicely selected programme was rendered, two of the most pleasing features of which were a duet by the Misses O'Neill and Gibbs and a solo by Miss Howard, who responded to an encore. Mr. Jessop gave an interesting address on pioneer days, in which he recounted the incidents of a trip over the plains and mountains to the Pacific Coast in 60. Rev. McLeod also delivered an address which gave any amount of amusement as well as food for sober thought. Following is the programme:

Piano Solo.....Prof. Sharpe
Chorus.....Choir
Duett.....Misses O'Neill and Gibbs
Solo.....Miss Howard
Solo.....R. Shakespeare
Address.....Mr. Jessop
Address.....Rev. F. McF. McLeod
Address.....Rev. J. E. Starr.

A Warning.

The modes of death's approach are various, and statistics show conclusively that more persons die from diseases of the throat and lungs than any other. It is probable that everyone, without exception, receives vast numbers of tubercle germs into the system and when these germs fall upon suitable soil they start into life and develop, at first slowly and is shown by a slight tickling sensation in the throat and if allowed to continue their ravages they extend to the head, causing catarrh. Now all this is dangerous and if allowed to proceed will in time cause death. At the onset you must act with promptness; allowing a cold to go without attention is dangerous and may lose you your life. As soon as you feel that something is wrong with your throat, lungs or nostrils, obtain a bottle of Boschee's German Syrup. It will give you immediate relief.

VICTORIA INTERESTED.

"The Port Townsend Bay and Columbia River Railroad Company"—of Port Townsend, W. T., capital stock, $3,000,000, has been incorporated. The trustees are JAMES CARROLL, of Juneau, Alaska, DAVID WALLACE, of Seattle, and H. L. TIBBALS, Jr., M. M. BUCKMAN and C. A. DYER, of Port Townsend. Its chief objects are to construct and operate a railroad and telegraph line from Port Townsend bay to some point on the Columbia river in Clarke county; also to own and operate a steamship line upon the waters of Puget Sound." This railway will doubtless be extended, sooner or later, down the Sound to Port Angeles or Crescent Bay, and when Victoria obtains connection with the American railway system many people believe it will be over this extension. The additional distance which would have to be constructed to reach the point where the ferry would cross would not be over 60 miles, and it would pass through a comparatively good country. With the P. T. & C. R. railway constructed, Victoria's chances of securing railway connection with our neighbors will have increased ten-fold.

"IT IS DISGRACEFUL."

Our Westminster contemporary has the manliness, and possesses sufficient independence of the "machine," to approve of the remarks made by the TIMES on the degeneracy of politics and politicians in British Columbia. The particular phase of political degeneracy referred to—"of all perhaps the most detestable," says the Columbian, "is that of members of parliament seeking election for the real, but concealed purpose of providing themselves with soft billets, at the expense, very often, of good public servants who hold the positions which they covet, and which, by the influence they are enabled to exercise through receiving the suffrages of the people, they obtain." The triangular deal having been mentioned, our contemporary concludes: "The principle of the people's representatives using their acquired influence to feather their own nests in such a shameful way cannot be too much condemned. It is disgraceful." These are brave words from the Columbian. The morning organ of the two governments in this city has not the courage to defend, and is too cowardly to condemn, the conduct of its friends.

BORROWING MONEY.

A Halifax contemporary, the Chronicle, denounces the reckless policy of the Dominion Government in borrowing money at a time when it is not needed. Having borrowed the money, the Government has to go begging for a place of deposit, and are only able to draw a nominal sum as interest upon a portion of the money and nothing at all upon the greater part of it. This is bad enough in itself, but it is not the worst phase of the matter. That is found in the apathy with which people treat such a deal. Millions will be consumed in paying interest upon money which there was no earthly necessity for borrowing. As our contemporary points out, five or six million will meet all the Government's present requirements. The remainder of the loan is in the hands of the Government. It will probably be found that the money costs the Dominion nearly 3½ per cent. The Finance Minister has placed five millions with the banks at 1½ per cent.—a dead loss of more than 2 per cent. to the country. For about fourteen millions soon to come to the hands of the Government it is probable that no investment will be found and the whole interest is a loss to the country.

UNDEVELOPED WEALTH.

The telegraph informed us yesterday that a party of Gloucester fishermen, having received favorable reports of the halibut fishery on this coast, have determined to transfer their business from the Atlantic to the Pacific, making their headquarters very likely in one of the Sound cities. Our fishing industry is as yet in its incipient stage, and with the exception of salmon packing it would not be without the truth to say that absolutely nothing has been done to utilize the enormous resources of the sea, which lie in great profusion at our very doors. Few have any conception of the fishing industry in other countries. Last year the value of the sea fisheries of the United Kingdom amounted to £6,390,000; those of the Canadian Dominion in 1886 to £3,892,000; those of France in 1885 to £3,709,000; those of Norway in 1886 amounted to £1,238,000; while those of Holland were only a little less valuable. According to the statistics referred to, the value of the fish landed in England and Wales last year was £4,103,000; that of Scotland (including £281,000 for salmon) was £1,678,000; and that of Ireland (including £293,000 for salmon) was £609,000;—making a total of £6,390,000 as stated; but, apart from the cost of retailing, the total value of fish as an article of food to the people of the United Kingdom cannot be estimated at less than thirteen millions sterling. These figures indicate an enormous trade and necessarily the acquisition of great wealth to the countries named. From the meagre information in our possession in regard to the deep sea fisheries of British Columbia, it is believed by gentlemen engaged in the trade, and by all familiar with the coast, that we have richer fishing grounds still untouched than have ever existed in the North Atlantic. What we require is capital, experience and enterprise to start an industry and demonstrate that it can be can be carried on profitably. That once done, it would be impossible to prophecy to what dimensions the business would grow, or to measure the direct and indirect benefits that would accrue to our people and province. The Government commenced a year ago an exploration of the banks to the west of Queen Charlotte Island, with the view of locating the home of the black cod, and propose to continue the work this summer under more favorable conditions. The expedition in the Sir James Douglas, under the direction of Inspector MOWAT, has, it is reported, been countermanded, and possibly nothing will be done in this direction this summer. This is greatly to be regretted. The profitable working of our great sea-farm would be, next to the successful development of the treasures of our mountains, of incalculable advantage, and everything that can be done in the direction of acquiring information ought to be done quickly. This is a question that might engage the attention of our representatives at Ottawa without any loss of prestige, and without endangering their chances for soft billets when they make up their minds to lay aside the cares and honors of public life.

POLITICAL IMMORALITY.

THE TIMES has stated that the Government and some of its supporters were guilty of corrupt practices in the Victoria District election. When it said this it expressed the belief of the majority of people who took part in, or who even watched, that contest with any degree of carefulness. The election was not fought and won on either the merits of the government or the candidates. There were many no doubt who supported the government candidate from no unworthy motive, but there were those again who were brought into the district and paid for their votes. It is puerile for the organ to ask us for proof that the government itself was guilty of corrupting the electorate. The pay roll of the road labors will answer that more emphatically than we can. The Colonist has access to it if it is really anxious to ferret out bribery and purify our elections. The government did its work systematically, and sent its emissaries through the district with well-lined pockets and profuse promises. That they dangled handfuls of gold twenties in an inviting manner before a few of the incorruptible goes to prove that they were not wholly unsuccessful. Our contemporary has not explained any of the mysterious visits made in the night by the pseudo Attorney-General to portions of the district. His objects may have been strictly honorable though we fear there is nothing about his record to produce such an impression. It is easy for our guilty contemporary to challenge the TIMES to make its charges in court. Like a great many other evils, the common crimes at elections are very hard to get at and will never be rooted out while governments not only accept the principle of bribery but put it systematically into practice.

The New York Herald declares the Democratic Presidential ticket is an ideal one and that the platform is the best ever framed.

It is now stated Mr. W. D. Perley, M. P., for East Assiniboine N. W. T., will be appointed to the Senate, giving his seat in the Commons to the Hon. Edgar Dewdney.

It is probable that the Reformers of North Lanark will ask Mr. D. G. Macdonell, ex-M. P., to become their candidate at the coming election for the Ontario Assembly in that riding. Dr. Preston, of Carleton Place, is likely to be the Conservative nominee.

The Canadian team at Wimbledon commenced competing on the 9th. The fact that the team beat Cambridge last week by 18 points at the Queen's ranges, and that good averages were secured during the practices despite the bad weather, encourages the hopes of success at Wimbledon.

Among the bishops who have arrived from distant regions to take part in the Pan Anglican synod in London is Dr. Austin, Bishop of Guinea. Dr. Austin is in his eighty-first year. Having been bishop of Guinea since 1842, he is the senior member of the English Episcopate.

A case of much interest to wholesale liquor dealers has just been heard before the supreme court of Prince Edward Island. A Halifax merchant sought to recover from a hotel-keeper in Prince Edward Island the value of a large quantity of liquors supplied. The defendant demurred to the action, contending that in the county where the liquor was retailed the Canada Temperance act was in force, and that the Halifax man knew that the liquors were to be sold contrary to law when he shipped them to his customer. After hearing argument on the demurrer the court held, Mr. Justice Peters dissenting, that if the facts alleged by the defendant were true the plaintiff could not recover.

The supreme court of Minnesota has just decided that a passenger on a railway train is not obliged to pay his fare unless accommodated with a seat. A man named Hardenburg boarded a train on the St. Paul and Manitoba railway, and before he learned that he could get no seat the train was going at a high rate of speed. On his fare being demanded Hardenburg refused to pay it unless a seat was provided for him, offering however to pay if a seat was provided. The court held that the passenger had a right to refuse to pay the fare and he did not thereby become a trespasser. The judges argued that a passenger has a right to a seat, and that a railroad having the right to eject from its train one not a trespasser must do so at a regular station.

The Judicial Committee of the Privy Council, on Saturday, dismissed with costs the application for leave to appeal in the Glengarry (Ont.) election case of Kennedy vs. Purcell. Lord Hobhouse, in giving a lengthy judgment, said in this case, as in the cases of Berg vs. Landry, and Valin vs. Langlers, there was the broad consideration of the inconvenience of the Crown interfering in election matters, and the unlikelihood that the Canadian Legislature intended any such result. Their Lordships did not find it necessary to give a decision on the abstract question of the existence of a Royal prerogative because strong reasons existed why such a matter should be decided within the colony and while the crown, if it existed, should not be extended to matters over which it had no power and with which it had no concern until the legislative bodies chose to hand over to judicial functionaries that which formerly was held by themselves. The Council could not therefore advise Her Majesty to grant the leave asked for. Mr. Purcell is consequently confirmed in his seat.

DAUGHTERS OF REBEKAH.

Public Installation of the Officers of Colfax Lodge No. 1.

In response to a general invitation extended to the lodges of the city several Odd Fellows and thir friends assembled in the hall last evening to witness the public installation of the officers of Colfax Rebekah Lodge No. 1. The officers were installed by Grand Master Brother Davies, assisted by the officers of the Grand Lodge. The elective officers were as follows: Sister Mrs Bishop, N G; Sister Mrs Dempster, V G; Sister Miss Huxtable, Rec Secretary; Sister A Carne, Financial Secretary; Sister Miss A Evans, Treasurer.

The following appointed officers were also installed at the same time:

Sister Mrs B Neill, Warden; Sister Miss A Gosnell, Conductor; Brother Huxtable, O G; Sister Mrs Hendry, I G; Sister Mrs Hayward, R S N G; Sister Mrs Taylor, L S N G; Sister Mrs Clyde, R S V G; Sister Miss J Carne, L S V G; Sister Miss Lange, Chaplain.

After the installation ceremonies Grand Master Davies made a short address, at the conclusion of which, on behalf of the Lodge, he presented Past Noble Grand, Mrs. M. Young, with a handsome Past Grand's pin, as a token of the esteem in which she was held. The pin consists of a five pointed star 1½ ins. in diameter suspended from a three link brooch with raised letters having a saphire and garnet set in five pointed stars, pink and green being the colors of the degree. On the back is inscribed "Presented to Mrs. M. Young, P. N. G., by the members of the Colfax Rebecca Lodge, No. 1, July 10th, 1888." The pin was manufactured by G. W. A. Lange and is a handsome piece of workmanship. After the presentation ice cream, berries and cake were served by the ladies, and the company indulged in a social hop interspersed with vocal and instrumental solos and duets.

THE WESTMINSTER SOUTHERN.

The Proposition of the Company—The Road Assured.

The Columbian gives the following as the conditions upon which the Seattle, Bellingham Bay & Westminster Railway Co. are prepared to construct the line: The city to give a bonus of $150,000 to the railroad, and $100,000 towards a combined railway and traffic bridge across the Fraser at Westminster; to provide a right of way through the city and the grounds for a station house, freight sheds and car and repairing shops; to exempt the company from taxation for a term of 25 years. The company agrees to build their car and machine shops at Westminster, and all the repairs to the entire rolling stock of the line to be made at Westminster; it will also inaugurate a tri-weekly steamboat service between Westminster and Whatcom and another steamer will connect with Seattle. The city council have instructed the city barrister to draw up a bylaw which will be submitted to the people at an early day. Work is to be commenced on the road at once; between Westminster and the boundary within thirty days of the passing of this bylaw, and the road is to be completed and trains running to Whatcom by the 1st July, 1890.

Capt. Ryder Drowned.

The sealing schooner Allie L Alger arrived at Port Townsend on Monday night with Mate G. C. Steinworth in command and reported the loss of Capt. C. E. Ryder with two sailors named John Beakman and Daniel Kiliskie. They started out in a small boat on June 15th and have never been seen since. It is likely that their boat was capsized but it is barely possible that they may have been picked up by some of the other craft. The captain and two men were lost in 59.05 north latitude and 147 west longitude. The accident was not observed by the Alger's crew, and an eight days' search was made, but the bodies were not found. The deceased captain was well known on the Pacific Coast, where he has many friends. He has no family, and we believe no relatives on this coast. He was in the employ of T. N. Nixon, of Seattle, the owner of the schooner.

AYER'S Hair Vigor has given me perfect satisfaction. I was nearly bald for six years, during which time I used many hair preparations, but without success. Chapel, Peabody, Mass.

HAIR that has become weak, gray, and faded, may have new life and color restored to it by the use of Ayer's Hair Vigor. "My hair was thin, faded, and dry, and fell out in large quantities. VIGOR, youth, and beauty, in the appearance of the hair, may be preserved for an indefinite period by the use of Ayer's Hair Vigor. "A disease of the scalp caused my hair to become harsh and dry, and to fall out freely. Nothing I tried seemed to do me any good until I commenced using Ayer's Hair Vigor. Three bottles of this preparation restored my hair to a healthy condition, and it is now soft and pliant. My scalp is cured, and it is also free from dandruff.—Mrs. E. R. Foss, Milwaukee, Wis.

SCHOOL TRUSTEES.

Pupils Enrolled and Average Attendance at Public Schools.

The regular meeting of the Board of School Trustees was held at the City Hall last evening. Present, Trustees Hayward, Harris, Wolfenden, Heisterman and Morrison.

The minutes of previous meeting were read and a discussion took place regarding a vote given by Trustee Morrison at the meeting. Trustee Heisterman claiming that Trustee Morrison voted both in the affirmative and negative on a motion. The minutes were adopted as read.

A communication was read from the Superintendent of Education informing the trustees that $10 per month would be set aside for clerical assistance for the secretary.

Trustee Wolfenden, Secretary of the Board, read a summary showing the average attained by each class in the city schools, and the number of pupils enrolled. The number of pupils attending during the month of June was 1,094, with an average attendance of 778 62.

A bill of $3.15 was presented from Mr. R. T. Williams for binding seven copies of the School Act. Ordered to be paid.

Trustee Heisterman, chairman of the visiting committee, reported having visited all the schools, and recommended a number of needed improvements. Report adopted.

Trustee Heisterman moved that a vote taken at the previous meeting regarding advertising for teachers be reconsidered. He did not agree with the dismissal of teachers at the end of every year, and then re-appointing them. If any teachers failed to give satisfaction, the Board could dismiss them and advertise for applications to fill the vacancies.

The motion was laid over until the next meeting of the Board.

The meeting then adjourned.

REMARKABLE PHENOMENON.

An Extraordinary Rainfall.—A Story About Mosquitoes.

KAMLOOPS, July 7.—This is the year of the reign of Plurius. It rained 28 days in June. In July, thus far, it has rained every day, and judging from the looks of the clouds it will rain 24 days more. Alex. Bain, an honest miner from the mountains, says that the effect of these showers has been to start the bunch grass, until it stands waist high. He also says that in conjunction with vegetable luxuriance trillions upon trillions of mosquitoes are being evoluted to work out a miserable existence in this "vale of tears." They grow right in amongst the bunch grass, and roost on its verdant stalks and merrily sing the live long day. These little imps, he further says, are opposed, apparently, to the further development of the country, for while the honest prospector meanders along in eager search after golden sands, they descend from their grassy perches and perforate the pores of his jeans with their long, insidious bills. Talk about grosery bills, whisky bills, the bete noir of miners, cries Alex., warming up to his subject, they are nothing to these confounded mosquito bills. There is such a thing as inducing a grocer and a whisky vendor to take stock in mining enterprises, and then you can assess them until they writhe again. With the mosquito, though, the case is different; he is always assessing you. Hang the mosquitoes. IRVING.

The Duchess of Marlborough.

Mrs. Hamersley, the New York widow who married the Duke of Marlborough on Friday last, is described by the World as a superb looking woman, tall and of a commanding figure and a prime cocky blonde. She has gone to the opera very frequently during the last two seasons, and her appearance is familiar to those who have been fond of watching the boxes at the Metropolitan Opera House on notable nights. She is the widow of Louis Hamersley, who died about five years ago, leaving a fortune of $5,000,000. The money was left to her during her lifetime, and to go at her death to the male heir of J. H. Hamersley, Louis' cousin, who at the time was looked upon as a confirmed bachelor. In the absence of an heir, Mrs. Hamersley was directed by the will to divide the $5,000,000, at her death, among well known charities. Hooker Hamersley remained a bachelor, and there was no prospect of a Hamersley heir until the other day, when he married a young society woman named Miss Margery Chisholm. The pecuniary benefit the Duke will derive from the alliance will be limited to whatever his wife's income amounts to during her lifetime. Another point worth noting is that no male issue of the marriage can succeed to the Marlborough title, as he has a son by his former marriage, now about fifteen years old, enjoying the title of the Marquis of Blandford, which was indeed his father's title until a few years ago.

A Peculiar Waterspout.

A peculiar phenomenon occurred the other afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at Lake Chetek, Wis. It was a waterspout in Chetek lake. The column of water was from twelve to fifteen feet in diameter. The water could be plainly seen ascending in a spiral column to a heavy mass of clouds about fifty rods above the lake. With the aid of a glass small fish could be seen winding their way upward. After a little over a quarter of an hour the column broke in two in the middle, and the lower half swept across Menomonie point in the form of a whirlwind, taking up all the lighter matter in its course, while the upper portion seemed to follow in the same course, having the exact appearance of an inverted funnel forty to fifty rods long. After breaking it was followed by a great rain, followed with some thunder and lightning.—Pittsburg Dispatch.

An Explanation.

What is this "nervous trouble" with which so many seem now to be afflicted? If you will remember a few years ago the word Malaria was comparatively unknown—to-day it is as common as any word in the English language, yet this word covers only the meaning of another word used by our forefathers in times past. So it is with nervous diseases, as they and Malaria are intended to cover what our grandfathers called Biliousness, and all are caused by troubles that arise from a diseased condition of the Liver which in performing its functions finding it cannot dispose of the bile through the ordinary channel is compelled to pass it off through the system, causing nervous troubles, Malaria, Bilious Fever, etc. You who are suffering can well appreciate a cure. We recommend Green's August Flower. Its cures are marvelous. *

A WINTER ELF.

Too cold it was to ride or walk
A little elf swung on a marigold stalk,
The marigold flowers were fallen and dead,
The marigold flowers were shrouded in snow;
A bitter wind rushed to and fro,
And all the violets were abed.

The little elf's nose was sorry and blue,
But the little elf's self was jolly all through;
And as he swung from side to side,
He sang his song with an air of pride:

"Out o' the wool o' the chestnut buds
My Minnie spun my hose and jerkin;
Of a bat's wing made my cloak,
Warm enough to wrap a Turk in;
Lined them all with thistle down,
Gathered when the pods were brown;
Trimmed them with a rabbit's fur,
Left upon a cockle bur;

"Yet, in spite of everything,
Much I fear that cold I be.
Ha! ha! the spring! Hot ho! the spring!
The merry, merry spring for me!"

—St. Nicholas.

SNIFFING AT PRUSSIC ACID.

A Coroner Finds Out How the Quickest of all Poisons Works.

Deputy Coroner Scholer, who narrowly escaped death recently from sniffing at the bottle from which Miss Mary Van Orden had drunk prussic acid and died, told a reporter about it.

"With me in Miss Van Orden's room," he said, "was Dr. J. F. Terriberry. We had been told that Miss Van Orden was in the habit of taking morphine, and as I had not yet been told that she had bought prussic acid, I supposed I was going to smell of Majendie's solution. I passed the vial we found back and forth under my nose three or four times and got a good sniff of the acid. It has a sweet, almond flavor, pungent and not at all disagreeable. Then I passed the bottle to Dr. Terriberry, and he took a sniff. I noticed that he was growing pale. Then I began to feel faint and weak myself.

Dr. Terriberry and I clutched each other and reeled. Either would have fallen without the support of the other. I laid on to him and called for fresh air. We were led to the door and down two or three flights of stairs. It was with the greatest difficulty that I drew my breath. My consciousness was perfect, but I had no control of my arms or hands or of my lower limbs. When I tried to step I raised my foot two feet from the ground, and when I tried to feel of my pulse I could not use my hands. I noticed that the blood and left the finger nails and that my hands were white as chalk. All through my body it seemed, as though the blood were driving toward my heart. How I got to the drug store at Ninth avenue and Forty-eighth street I don't know. A young man there said sulphate of magnesia was an antidote for prussic acid, but it isn't. I took the dose, however, and then was led to the Forty-seventh street police station. Capt. Killilea prescribed brandy, and as he believes in large doses, he gave me so much that I was drunk after taking it. I told Capt. Killilea of my difficulty in breathing, and told him how to move my arms up and down. He lifted a window in the police station and worked my arms like a pump for a long time, causing an artificial movement of the ribs.

"Then I was taken to the Roosevelt hospital, and a physician gave me a dose of carbonate of ammonia. In two hours I felt better and came home. I have been very weak since. It seems as though I had no marrow in my bones. I have been requested to write a statement of the experience for a medical journal, and I think I shall do so. Dr. Terriberry told me today that he has been very sick. He was tormented by the most frightful nightmares when he tried to sleep. I didn't have a nightmare, perhaps, because of the brandy."—New York Sun.

Frenchman Not on Their Muscle.

The Frenchman cares little to contest in anything where mere muscular ability is at an advantage, says a Parisian visitor. He pursues sport as he does art—striving to develop its fine points, aiming to become expert and admiring only the skill that may be attained in the exercise. We have no such thing as a national game, nothing that approaches to your baseball, or polo, or the English cricket. Sport with us means, as a rule, horse racing, and undoubtedly our jockeys, of whom we think highly, would compare favorably with the best that this country knows. The exercise that really occupies our attention as a national institution is fencing, and that probably arises from the military character of the national life. Much of the energy that the American youth puts into play and physical contests is absorbed by the government in recruiting the army. Here the boys of the village have to provide their own amusements, their own exercises, and have to depend upon themselves for acquiring the discipline that is so essential to really successful sport. With us the government provides the exercise and the discipline, and if the young man can get any amusement out of it so much the better for them. It is the next war that is always uppermost in every Frenchman's mind.—New York Cor. Philadelphia Times.

Wanted an Easy Chair.

A Nashville furniture dealer tells a little story that shows how some people are constituted. A lady ordered an elegant easy chair of a peculiar kind. It was made and sent to her house. She examined it carefully and critically, finally remarking that it suited her exactly, with one exception—it was too soft. She had the man take the chair back to be made a trifle harder. The chair was returned to the store and put aside. Nothing was done to it. After the lapse of about a week the chair was sent out again. The woman again examined it, and this time the chair was too hard. She was sorry, but when she paid so much to get an article for her own comfort she wanted it about right, so she sent it back to the store for another change. The chair was again put aside for a week or ten days and sent out for the third time without having a particle of change made. This time it was just right. She took the chair, paid for it, and was sorry it had not suited her at first. The poor woman never knew that the chair had not been changed a particle.—Chicago News.

TO THE INCREDULOUS.

There was Never the Man Who was Fooled or Humbugged—He Humbugs Himself.

The human race affords in itself a most singular study. There are among the many class of thinkers, those who repose too much confidence in others, too little confidence in themselves, or no confidence in anything. The man who knows it all himself, the man who thinks somebody else knows it all and the man who thinks he knows who knows it all. The egotist, the simpleton and the skeptic. Recognizing the fact that people require more substantial evidence than mere words and promises, Drs. Darrin resort to the most legitimate method of advertising themselves by advertising their cures. That those among the community may be afforded an opportunity of investigating before calling in person upon the doctors, the following testimonials are published bearing evidence of the doctors' ability and skill as well as success.

DEAFNESS CURED IN TEN MINUTES.

Mr. Editor—Dear Sir: I reside in North Yakima, W. T. I consulted Drs. Darrin for deafness. My left ear was totally deaf. With one operation with Drs. Darrin's electro-magnetic cure, of ten minutes, I was made to hear as well as ever in my life. Can be referred to as to the truth of my statement.

C. V. FOWLER.

AN OPEN LETTER.

SEATTLE, W. T.

DRS. DARRIN—Gentlemen: I now take the pleasure of writing you that after a full course of your electro-magnetic treatment I am entirely cured of a pain in my chest which has troubled me for over eight years. Having been under treatment by doctors of Liverpool, Glasgow, Calcutta and San Francisco, none of them did me any good until I came under your treatment, which I am sure has permanently cured me, for which, gentlemen, I beg to remain,

Yours gratefully,
WILLIAM LITTLE.

ASTHMA AND OPIUM HABIT CURED.

MR. EDITOR—Dear Sir: I have been troubled with asthma for the past thirteen months, so bad as not to be able to do a day's work, and have suffered "torments of the damned." The paroxysms were so severe that my life was many thought to be despaired of. I had tried everything, and a great many physicians. In order to get relief I had to resort to morphine, until I had contracted the habit. I put myself under their electro-magnetic treatment. Now, after several treatments, I am entirely cured of my asthma and the morphine habit, and I have no craving for the drug. I can be referred to at the McKenzie House, foot of Marion street, Seattle, W. T.

H. A. JOHNSON.

CURE OF CATARRH AND VARICOSE VEINS.

TO THE PUBLIC: For ten years I have been troubled with a very disagreeable catarrh and bronchitis. I finally got so bad that I had to give up my business of ranching and riding for my stock. The catarrh extended to my lungs and stomach. My physicians gave me up as incurable. Last October I came to Drs. Darrin, and now, after three months' treatment, I consider myself as far restored as to be able to do all my own work. Before treatment I had to give up horseback riding, and could not attend to my stock at all; now I can remain in the saddle all day without fatigue. My wife had also been troubled with dropsy, milk leg and varicose veins, so she could only walk with the greatest inconvenience, and it was painful to the touch, and finally broke out in a running sore. Drs. Darrin sent her medicines, and to our glad joy, she is entirely cured.

Refer to me at Sprague, W. T.

FREDERICK MOHS.

The above gentleman, Mr. Mohs, owns a farm of 2700 acres and hundreds of cattle and horses, and these statements coming from a man of undoubted integrity, and whose reputation for veracity is above suspicion; must be admitted as positively true.

SCIATIC RHEUMATISM CURED.

MR. EDITOR—Dear Sir: For nearly a year I have been afflicted with sciatic rheumatism, and was so bad as to be unable to sit upon a chair or to get around, and suffered tortures indescribable. I came to the Drs. Darrin, Seattle, W. T., and went under their electro-magnetic treatment and home treatment. I now consider myself entirely cured. Can be referred to at Port Blakely, W. T.

S. F. HOSKINSON.

DEAFNESS AND DISCHARGING EARS CURED.

TO THE PUBLIC: I have been troubled with deafness and a discharge of one ear for over twenty years, and have tried everything. I placed myself under the Drs. Darrin's electro-magnetic treatment and I am now cured of my long standing trouble. I cheerfully recommend the doctors to afflicted humanity. Can be referred to at Stuck Junction, W. T.

JOHN WOLFLIN.

OVERFLOWING TEARS CHECKED.

TO THE PUBLIC: For a number of years I have been troubled with overflowing of tears down my cheeks, and have been operated on a number of times by a physician without success. Called on the Drs. Darrin at the International Hotel, Cherry street, and they operated upon my eye, and I now feel great relief for the first time in fourteen years. I can be referred to at 1351 Railroad street, Tacoma, W. T.

MRS. A. J. QUENTAL.

A CERTIFIED CURE.

This is to certify that I have been troubled with weak eyes for over a year past, and with a constant pain over the eye and ball, and was almost blind at times. I went to Drs. Darrin and put myself under their electro-magnetic treatment, with the happiest results, as I consider myself cured. I can be gladly referred to at White River, W. T.

JOHN MULLEN.

OFFICE HOURS AND PLACE OF BUSINESS.

The Drs. Darrin are located at the International Hotel, Cherry street, Seattle, W. T. Consultation free.

Office hours, from 10 to 4 daily; evenings, 7 to 8; Sundays 10 to 12. All curable chronic diseases, blood taints, taints, stricture, catarrh and deafness are confidentially and successfully treated. Circulars sent free. Most cases can receive home treatment after a visit to the doctors' office.

(The Drs. Darrin also have a branch office at 235 Fifth street, Portland, Or., where any in that vicinity can consult them.)

Mrs. O'Leary's Famous Cow

kicked over a lamp, and Chicago, the bustling young metropolis of the west, was laid in ruins. This is a striking illustration of the old saying that "great results have small beginnings." The neglected cold, the hacking cough of today, may a few months hence, develop into that direst of destroyers, consumption. Be warned in time. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, if taken in the first stages of this dread disease, is a certain cure. It is also a sovereign remedy for asthma, bronchitis, sore throat, chronic nasal catarrh, and all disease of the respiratory organs.

The cleansing, antiseptic and healing qualities of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy are unequaled. wed-sat Rivers Inlet Fishing.

Mr. M. H. Cowan returned from Rivers Inlet this morning. He reports that the run of salmon commenced about the 1st of July, and has been steadily increasing every day since that time. Each of the canneries has put up about 2000 cases and the two salting establishments about 200 barrels each. The prospects are that the run will be fully equal to the large run of three years ago. Labor is scarce on the Inlet, many of the Indians having come south to work.

Stands off the Toredo Worm.

A Mr. Collins, of Seattle, is the authority for the statement that yellow cedar is invincible to the attacks of the toredo worm. "For instance," said he, "the steamship Alexander, of British Columbia, was built in 1875, and launched in 1876. Her bottom is built of yellow cedar, and has no copper plating to protect the hull. It has been in service for nearly twelve years, and is as sound to-day as when she was first launched." Mr. Collins also informed the Press reporter that yellow cedar was found in great abundance along the Skeena river. In this we believe him to be mistaken. There is some yellow cedar to be found on different parts of the coast, but prospecting parties have never found it in great abundance.

A FATHERLESS CHILD

Found Dead in a House on Cormorant Street—Inquest.

Early this morning Dr. Renwick was called on to give a certificate of death on the body of a child in a brick house on Cormorant street, above Douglas. On entering the place Dr. Renwick found a dead female child weighing 4½ pounds in a bed. After examining the child he would not give a certificate that it died from natural causes, and immediately notified the Coroner, Dr. Jackson. The police were called in and it was ascertained that the mother of the child was a girl named Robbins, daughter of a man whose occupation in this city has been to mend clocks and sewing machines. The child's father is said to be a blacksmith named Slaughter, who left this city about three months ago. The child was born on June 7th last.

At 3 o'clock this afternoon, Coroner Jackson held an inquest on the remains of the child named Annie Slaughter. The following jurors were sworn: H Mansell, George W Wynn, W Craft, Samuel Clay, John Woods and T Storey. The last named gentleman was chosen as foreman. The jury proceeded to the house on Fisgard street and viewed the body which was terribly emaciated.

Dr. Renwick stated that the child is the daughter of Minnie Robbins; born on June 8th; attended mother and child; was aroused this morning at 7:30 and was told of the child's death; made a post-mortem examination; weighed the body of the child and found it to be 4½ pounds which was by computation about 3½ or 4 pounds less than when it was born; saw no signs of disease; no fat on the extremities. On opening the body the internal organs were healthy; saw no evidence of food in the intestinal canal; from the evidences external and internal formed the opinion that the child died of inanition.

To Supt. Bloomfield—The mother is present in Court; have not seen the child since it was born until to-day. Inanition means two things—being starved wilfully and food being involuntarily withheld; the other is the child being unable to assimilate the food. The organs were all healthy. I leave it to the jury to say how the child died. The child was perfectly able to assimilate the food.

Minnie Robbins stated—The child is mine; she was sick for one week; sent for a doctor this morning; the child died at daylight; witness was not at home; did not nurse the child since it was a week old; had not enough nourishment, and had to go out to work; left the child with a sister.

To Mr. Mansell—Left cow's milk for the child with my sister.

To Mr. Woods—Fed the child on Sunday afternoon. The child was dead when I came home this morning.

To Mr. Craft—On Sunday the child look sick; she would not retain the milk on her stomach. Fed the child last night; it would take but little milk.

The Coroner said it was his duty to say that the evidence shows negligence and ignorance.

The jury found that the deceased came to her death through culpable negligence on the part of her parents or guardians, by withholding proper nourishment.

Immediately after the verdict was rendered a policeman was detailed to arrest the mother.

From the North.

The steamer Barbar Boscowitz arrived at 8 o'clock this morning from Fort Simpson and way ports with the following passengers: A J McLellan from Naas river; Miss Booth, Inverness; R F Dodd, Massett; M H Cowan, Rivers Inlet; Mr Borland, Forks of Skeena. The Boscowitz brought 3000 cases of salmon from Naas and Skeena rivers. The salmon run is very good on the rivers and the canneries are working night and day.

Admiral Henage and the Tailors.

I hear from the Pacific coast that Admiral Henage is earning the fervent gratitude of the tailors throughout that part of the world. It is not only on board the fleet that the commander's eye for the niceties of the toilets exerts its influence. The consuls and other officials at every port along the coast are equally impressed by the Admiral's critical taste and the mere rumor that "Henage is coming" is sufficient to set them all overhauling their wardrobes and giving reckless orders for tailoring and hosiery. It is a novel kind of reputation for an English Admiral.—London Truth.

Throwing the Lead.

Steamboat travelling on the Fraser is constantly enlivened by sounding, and the calls "six feet," "five and a half," "no bottom," &c., have come to be given after a traditional musical formula very much like intoning. A recent importation from the land of "praties" having been ordered to the lead, went bravely to work, and sang out thusly: "Too rul," "Too-rul-i-rul," "Too-rul-i—" "What's that your saying?" shouted the mate. "Faix," answered Pat, "oi remimber the chune, but o'ive forgot the wurrds intoirely."

Kept Afloat Eight Days.

The bark Bella Vista, from Chemainus, which went down eighteen miles from Point Reyes, was kept afloat eight days by pumping. When two days out she sprung a leak, and the men were at the pumps constantly until she settled and sank. On the night of the 6th, when there was no hope of saving the bark, the ship Gov. Robie was sighted. The captain of the Bella Vista got into a small boat, signalled the ship and followed her six miles. No attention was paid to the flag of distress. When the captain returned to the bark, the crew of ten men got into the small boat and the Bella Vista went down in 300 fathoms of water. The sailors, as already stated, were picked up by the Napa City, and by that schooner were taken to San Francisco.

THE INDIANS IN ARMS.

An Unfortunate Affair—A Special Constable Shoots an Indian Murderer.

Indians Threaten to Murder the Whites—Fortified at Hazelton.

Mr. Borland, of the well-known packing firm of Veith & Borland, arrived from Hazelton this morning on the steamer Barbara Boscowitz, to confer with the Attorney General regarding the state of affairs at Hazelton, on the Skeena river. Some time last year an Indian named Kit-wun-cool Jim murdered an Indian doctor at the forks of the Skeena. A posse of specials under Mr. Washburne, was sent from this city to arrest the murderer. When they arrived at Hazelton it was discovered that Jim had gone to the mountains to elude the officers of the law. The party consisted of Washburne, Loring, Green, Holmes and Parker. They encamped at Hazelton and awaited the return of the murderer. Early in June the party received information that Jim was at a place called Kitangar, about fifteen miles below the Forks. On the morning of the 19th of June an Indian brought in the news that Jim was in a House at Kitangar. Early in the morning three of the party walked down to the house, which was occupied by about 20 Indians. Jim was among the number, and he was called on to surrender. He made a break for the door and ran towards the bush. Holmes fired his revolver over Jim's head after calling on him to surrender, but he still kept on. Green then raised his Winchester rifle and fired, striking Jim in the back, the bullet going clear through his body. Jim fell and expired in a short time. Washburne and Loring came to the scene of the tragedy about an hour after the shooting and handed the body over to an Indian who is acting as missionary. The latter told Washburne to take his specials to a place of safety on account of the threats made by Jim's friends to massacre the whole party. The specials then returned to Hazelton where they are at present, hemmed in by hostile Indians. They have erected bastions of timber and bags of sand and can hold out for a month if the Indians can be prevented from burning the place. Mr. Borland is engaged in packing goods for the Hudson Bay Company between Hazelton and Babine Lake. His freight train, with five men, are above Hazelton, and no freight can be carried up. He had great difficulty in coming down. The canoe was stopped by one party of Indians, and the occupants ordered to return. Mr. Borland was determined to get through, and at last convinced the natives that he was not connected with the specials. At every encampment his four Indians went ashore and held a conference with their brethren. Amongst the whites in the locality where the shooting took place are Mr. Clifford and wife (in charge of the Hudson Bay store), Rev. Mr. Fields and wife, and Mrs. Hankin and family. They are very much troubled over the state of affairs. The Indians demand that Green shall be handed over to them and the sum of $1000. If the specials refuse to accede to their demands they threaten to burn down the houses and murder every white person in the locality. The Indian trappers are still out in the mountains and a number of their men are at work in the canneries. The Indian women are calling on their warriors to avenge the death of Jim. Mr. Borland says prompt steps should be taken by the Government. Should a rising take place the lives of all will be sacrificed. The Indians will not allow another white person to come down the river and unless a large party proceeds to Hazelton without a moment's delay the result will be a massacre of the specials. The river is not navigable for a man-of-war.

OUR TOWN MAJOR.

A Talk with a Citizen—Out of Town—City Affairs.

There's nobody in town. All are away enjoying themselves or seeking renewed health amidst the perpetual snows of the eastern slopes. It's to be hoped they will all return, especially the members of the city council, with strength renewed to tackle the fight for existence in Victoria, i. e., a political existence. The Mayor's away, so are a good many of the aldermen; they are away it is hoped not only in search of health, but also in search of ideas. So is the Social World man; he's gone to Vancouver. So the small boy said to The Major, yesterday. They say he has been affected with a serious malady, and the social circles of Victoria may miss their friend of the World some day. Yes, a man of the world, from the shining tile down to the boots, stick, button hole and all. But the world is wide—it's a good sized sheet—its ideas expand as it grows older. Many say its virtues increase; others that of its wickedness and sin. But then according to Dr. Clark, the Star, and other commentators, the world should be drawing to an end, and we may shortly expect the millenial period. Mother Shipton prophesied it would come to an end long ago and a good many wonder it has lasted so long.

Two weeks and no meeting of the Board of Aldermen. Our city is running itself, and just as well for the matter of that. Only just take a look at the James Bay bridge and see how that institution is running. When will these 90 days be up? Goodness knows it's near time.

Will some benevolent personage have the kindness to donate to the city council a few pounds of spikes to nail down the old rotten side-walks. Else if you don't you will have the Major breaking his neck some day; then there will be the old boy to pay, or some one else. You can't spare The Major yet. Mayhap, however, the council would like to see him put out of the road.

The Major has not heard from "Ex-Councillor" as yet; perhaps he has also gone to Harrison Hot Springs for inspiration as to how to make things hot for The Major—or the Mayor.

There was nobody at the Victoria last night. A great treat was missed, however. The fascinating Miss St. John and the inimitable Mr. Wood appeared to best advantage; pity it was the more sombre "Dr. Jeykll" had not been laid aside on first appearance. Heavy pieces don't go down in Victoria.

"Major," said an old and respected citizen, yesterday, "your plan for the improvement of the city is elaborate, if you only can induce the people to accept it. You know we want new ideas and conceptions. You wise men from the east come here and find us a peculiar people in most respects. Now, we don't need to be told that, for we know it well enough. We know that we are behind the times in many things; like individuals, we are aware of our faults; but don't like to be told of them. Coming from a tenderfoot, like you, it may go down with us individually, but not as a whole. In your plan I see you touched us on a very tender spot. No! it's not about the stealing propensities—it is about the wild lands, and this tax of yours upon absentees. There are men of influence who are making a good thing out of investing moneys for them in real property. It pays a good percentage, you see, and another thing, it is sure. There's some of the most desirable property about Victoria held by absentees; they won't sell, but they'll lease. If they do sell they want an exhorbitant price, so no one can buy. I believe they are not assessed for the values they'll only sell at, but if you buy you'll soon find out the difference. Yes, we have the curse of Ireland, aye and England too, here in these absentee landlords, and I agree with you that they, in the interest of the country, ought to be swept clean away. You may become the Parnell of this country yet Major, and you've struck the right key in your cry of the land for the people. But, Major, recollect that that's rank treason—you'll be boycotted sure; they'll try at it some how or other. Yes, as you say they might get the Dominion Government to pass a law of compulsory expropriation, similar to that passed for Prince Edward Island. Landlordism was there in that colony in all its glory. I know that doing away with these absent landlords would be a boon to generations yet to come. It's a curse, and any country giving it shelter must suffer sooner or later. The rents, as you say, like poor Ireland, drain the country, especially Victoria, of a great deal of ready money. Law should aid in rectifying such a crying evil. I know that the Dominion Government do not countenance the establishment of the vampire landlordism in Manitoba or the nor'-west; it has thrown out all the safeguards it can against it. Still it will creep in, and the only way is in taxation. Now if we only had the land 'round Victoria, say half-settled. I don't think there would be any necessity for the importation of supplies, such as butter, eggs and vegetables, except in the seasons of Spring and Winter for early vegetables. They ought to be able to raise enough to supply Victoria anyway. But we'll talk of this another time; the subject needs a long discussion. I want to say a word to you about the market. Here you drop all at once on another tender spot, and one you'll have great opposition in. In it you have all the merchants, wholesale and retail, from the peanut vender on Government street up; they'll be all dead against you, and the butchers will be the worst. Ex-Mayor Fell, you may convert on purely philanthropic principles, or in a desire to benefit his fellow beings—these head all others with him, even to self interest. You may get him to give a silent acquiescence but nothing further. Once he has an idea in his head, you and all the bench of bishops can't alter it. I really think he would listen and think more of your arguments than those coming from bishops. I only used it as a simile. Now, if you only could obtain assistance from spirit land and contrive at some seance to have a spirit belonging to a departed old timer advocate a market, you might succeed. However, I think you have him on your side on the other questions. Yes, it was a shame, and I think a great loss to the business interests of the city and province, not retaining Mr. Fell on the council of the Board of Trade; but like all other things, the Board is not infallible. Politics, you know, enter into many things; you must yourself go into politics. Oh! you easily know the side to take—all stick to the side that holds the purse strings, no matter low or outs, Grits or Tories; then you'll be like the politicians of Victoria. As the song says, "You'll still be vicar of Bray, Sir." Now these politicians don't care for Mr. Fell, especially the Provincial ones, of his party. Yes, he's a Tory from principle, but he's too honest at heart to suit their proclivities or connive at any of their little dodges. He'd be free to oppose anything of the sort and let the cat out of the bag on them. You can see by the man's countenance that he's too honest and that he could no be made a tool of. I think the board of royal commissioners you mention would meet the approval of all classes, and all shades of politics. It must come to that. The petty ward politicians of Victoria have had everything too much their own way for years past. They must be sat on completely before we can hope to have anything like honesty of purpose in the council, or that the property holders and ratepayers will place any trust or confidence in them. I agree with you, that the estimates proposed by you are really necessary to carry out the intended improvements and if rightly expended ought to place the city in its proper position. The park expenditure would repay the amount back to the trade of the city in a year or so. The place being made attractive, people would flock from far and near to spend a season in Victoria; it would become the Brighton, the Bournemouth, the Dawlish of the Pacific coast. Our city trade would be immensely increased by it. Oh! there would be no doubt but you would have plenty of people; only get them to build hotels suitable to the wants and requirements of tourists and you will have guests enough and to spare. The fame of Victoria has spread abroad; it is easy of access owing to the increased modes of travel and will become more so every year. Even with the tourist trade we would have an increased population. Their wants must be catered for and there would be such an impetus given to all kinds of business that old timers would fancy the good old days had come back again. The sewers would add to our hygienic reputation, and give confidence to visitors. Our streets would add to our attractions. Our water would be of the purest, while the market would place the necessaries, nay, even the luxuries of life, within reach of all. If the people could only see things in your light, Major, affairs would take such a turn that they'd be astonished. I'll see you again soon, when we will go into the land question more fully. We must get Henry George here to lecture. Good day, Major; I wish you success. You deserve it." He departed leaving deep impressions on THE TOWN MAJOR.

Wasp Stings.

It is a fact not generally known, that if one holds his breath, wasps, bees and hornets can be handled with impunity. The skin becomes sting proof, and holding the insect by the feet and giving her full liberty of action, you can see her drive her weapon against the impenetrable surface with a force that lifts her body at every stroke; but let the smallest quantity of air escape from the lungs, and the sting will penetrate at once. I have never seen an exception to this in twenty-five years' observation. I have taught young ladies with very delicate hands to astonish their friends by the performance of this feat; and I saw one so severely stung as to require the services of a physician, through laughing at a witty remark of her sister, forgetting that laughing required breath. For a theory is explanation. I am led to believe that holding the breath partially closes the pores of the skin. My experiments in that direction have not been exact enough to be one of any scientific value, but I am satisfied that it very sensibly affects the amount of insensible perspiration.
